

CTE = Career & Technical Education
Concurrent Enrollment vs. Dual Credit vs. Advanced Opportunities

Component	Concurrent Enrollment	Dual Credit	Advanced Opportunity Technical Competency Credit
Matching post-secondary competencies	100%	College based NON-CTE curriculum – 100%	Skilled based CTE curriculum – 100%
Classes are taught	At EITC	At the high school	At the high school
Teacher eligibility	Only EITC CTE qualified Instructors at this time	Same qualifications as college teacher (or approval by the college)	Must be teaching a “technical” class and be approved by Idaho Division of CTE
When does a student become eligible	The student must apply as a concurrent student, Upon acceptance at EITC, and pay for the regular credit fees	At the beginning of the class, the student must enroll as a dual credit student and pay for the dual credit fees	After they have registered Skillstack, passed all required competencies & assessments
Costs	EITC – as posted on in the current year catalog	$65 per credit – if taken at the high school (full college specific fees if taken at the college) Eligible for Idaho Fast Forward Funds	$10 per credit Not Eligible for Idaho Fast Forward Funds
When are fees paid	At the time of registration	At the time of registration	Within 2 yrs of completion of the course and after enrollment into the college offering the credits.
Failing Grades	All grades earned are reflected on the college transcript, including C, D, and F and may affect a student’s eligibility for college financial aid	All grades earned are reflected on the college transcript, including C, D, and F and may affect a student’s eligibility for college financial aid	Technical Competency Credit is based on HS teacher verified skill proficiency and SkillStack badge completion
Transferability of Credit	Credits are automatically reflected on an EITC transcript at the completion of the course. Check with the receiving college.	Credits are automatically reflected on the participating college transcript at the completion of the course. Check with the receiving college.	Students must be enrolled at Postsecondary institution offering the credits being purchased.

CEI is currently only offering Concurrent Enrollment & Technical Competency Credit.

Updated: September 18, 2017