RE: Business News Announcement

Amanda Logan has been named Executive Liaison for College of Eastern Idaho (CEI). Amanda was raised in Idaho Falls and graduated magna cum laude from Skyline High School. She graduated summa cum laude from Moravian College (Bethlehem, PA) with a bachelor's degree in economics and political science. Amanda began her career conducting economic policy research and analysis at a think tank in Washington, DC. She moved to the US Department of the Treasury in 2009 to help with the advancement and early implementation of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. Amanda then worked to stand up the newly created Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and went on to hold more senior positions during her seven and a half years with the agency. Most recently, Amanda briefly served as the chief of staff of a small watchdog group before she and her husband relocated to Idaho Falls. Amanda is currently pursuing an Executive Master of Public Administration from Syracuse University's Maxwell School. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Unitarian Universalist Church in Idaho Falls and is a member of the Idaho Falls Rotary Club.

Amanda's background and experience is invaluable. CEI is confident that she will prove to be a valuable asset and leader at our new and growing community college.
