

Craig Miller was raised less than a mile from College of Eastern Idaho in the Ammon area, and has spent the majority of his life in Idaho Falls. He graduated from Idaho State University with a B.S. in Secondary Education, and taught in Bonneville School District #93 for five years. He also coached football, baseball and softball. During this time he went on to earn a Masters Degree in Educational Leadership from Idaho State University in 2003. Since then he has worked in administration at the middle and high school levels, and also spent some time working as a regional Career Technical Education Coordinator. He currently serves as the principal of Black Canyon Middle School after serving as an assistant principal at Thunder Ridge High School, and was recognized as the Idaho Assistant Principal of the year for 2020. His wife Michelle is the librarian at Rocky Mountain Middle School. His daughter Kirsi graduated from Thunder Ridge a year early, and will be attending CEI this fall, and his son Kyle will be a freshman at Thunder Ridge this year.

During Craig's educational career he has been able to sit on the Idaho SkillsUSA Board and the CTE Foundation Board. He was appointed to the Board of Trustees at College of Eastern Idaho in 2017, and was elected to that position in 2018 and reelected in 2020.

Craig Miller

Trustee, CEI Board of Trustees (Zone 4)

trustee.miller@cei.edu

Term expires November 2024