

Raquel Cuevas has accepted the Registrar position at College of Eastern Idaho (CEI).

Raquel has worked in Higher Education for 17 years. She started her career in 2003 as a work-study student for Idaho State University-Idaho Falls in the Student Services office while attending classes.

In July 2010, Raquel began working at Eastern Idaho Technical College as a Financial Aid Advisor and Veteran Certifying Official. In May 2014, Raquel held the position of Assistant Registrar at Eastern Idaho Technical College and in 2017; she was promoted to Associate Registrar.

Raquel graduated with a master's degree in Adult Organizational Learning and Leadership from University of Idaho in December 2014.

CEI is confident that she will continue to be a valuable asset and leader at our growing community college.
