

Tom Marcotte has accepted the Director of IT Services position at College of Eastern Idaho (CEI). Tom spent the last 20 years at Skidmore College, in Saratoga Springs, NY, where he most recently served as the Assistant Chief Technology Officer.

He began his IT career in the New York State Senate and has also worked for a number of private sector companies.

He received his B.A. in Political Science from SUNY at Albany, an A.A.S. in Marketing from SUNY Adirondack, and a one-year certificate in Radio

Broadcasting from SUNY Adirondack. He is certified in ITIL Foundations, and is a "Certified Software Manager," and "Advanced Software Manager."

In previous "lives", Tom was a professional country music disc jockey for three years, spent nine years working shift work in a paper mill, and is a proud veteran, having served four years in the U.S. Navy.

CEI is confident that he will continue to be a valuable asset and leader at our growing community college.
