

Park Price is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Bank of Idaho, an independent community bank. He holds a bachelor's degree in Economics from Dartmouth College. His training at Dartmouth and his experience as the owner of Park Price Motor Company in Pocatello for 24 years instilled in him a passion for education and economic development.

With respect to the economy, he is serving his second term as a Director of the Salt Lake Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. Between those stints, he was a director of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle, an important source of funds for banks providing mortgages for homeowners and small businesses. Closer to home, Mr.

Price is a Trustee of PERSI, the Public Employee Retirement System of Idaho, the Chair of REDI, the regional economic development organization for Eastern Idaho. He has also served as chair of the Idaho Association of Commerce and Industry and Eastern Idaho Regional Medical Center.

Education is his other passion. He is Chair of the Board of Trustees of the College of Eastern Idaho. He has been Chair of the Idaho State University Foundation, is currently the Eastern Regional Chair of Idaho Business for Education. He also served as a member of the Governor's Higher Education Task Force.

Because health care is an important issue to the business owners and all citizens of Idaho, he has served as a Director of Delta Dental Plan of Idaho and just recently completed his term as Chair of the Board of Trustees of Eastern Idaho Regional Medical Center. Mr. Price is a member of civic organizations such as Rotary Clubs in Pocatello and Idaho Falls, the Idaho Community Foundation, and the City Club of Idaho Falls.
