You are currently in the process of applying for or have already received a Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) discharge. If you are in the process of applying for a TPD discharge, receiving additional federal student aid may affect your eligibility for a TPD discharge. If you have already received a TPD discharge, you must meet additional federal requirements to receive further financial aid. Depending on when you received a TPD discharge, receiving additional federal student aid may affect your ability to keep your discharge. To register go to https://secure.disabilitydischarge.com/Registration
Students may contact the Department's TPD Servicer Nelnet at 1-888-303-7818. disabilityinformation@nelnet.net

Students may contact the Department's TPD Servicer Nelnet at 1-888-303-7818. disabilityInformation@nelnet.net   The Department of Education has determined that you have had federal student loans discharged due to a total and permanent disability. This discharge limits your eligibility for additional student financial aid. Federal financial aid includes grants, loans, and work-study funding. Please review and complete this form to determine your eligibility for financial aid. The Financial Aid Office has the right to request additional documentation upon review of this request.   Check one appropriate box below:   Ido not want to be considered for any federal student loans. I am requesting grants and/or work-study funds. I will only accept grants and/or work-study funds. I will only accept grants and/or work-study funds. I will provide the following:   A statement from a legally licensed physician stating that my condition has improved and that I have the ability engage in a substantial gainful activity. Attach the statement to this form.   Provide a written statement in your own words that you (name), acknowledge that the new Title IV Loan cannot be discharged in the future on the basis of any impairment present when the new loan is made and disbursed, unless that impairment substantially deteriorates to the extent that you (name), have met the definition of totally and permanently disabled.    Understand that if I request a new loan during the 3-year post discharge monitoring period or the conditional discharge period, I must resume payment on the old loan and provide proof of payment, before receipt of the new loan request. If my loan is in default upon reinstatement I must make satisfactory repayment arrangements before I can receive a new loan.    Student Signature:	keep your discharge.
